

The Honorable Robert S. Lasnik

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

JAQUAN KEON JACKSON,

Defendant.

NO. CR20-096 RSL

PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING DISCOVERY MATERIALS

This matter came before the Court on the government's Motion for Protective Order. For the reasons stated in the government's motion, the Court finds that good cause has been shown and orders as follows:

1. This Protective Order governs all police reports produced by the government in the above-captioned case that pertain to past arrests of the 911 caller, identified in the Complaint as "A.R.H." This material is referred to hereinafter as "Protected Material."

2. The United States will make copies of the Protected Material available to defense counsel. Possession of copies of the Protected Material is limited to the attorneys of record, investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts and assistants for the attorneys of record (hereinafter collectively referred to as members of the defense team).

1 3. The attorneys of record and members of the defense team may display and
2 review the Protected Material with the defendant, but may not leave any Protected
3 Material with him.

4 4. Providing copies of the Protected Material to persons outside of the defense
5 team is prohibited, and the defense team shall not provide copies of the Protected
6 Material to persons outside of the defense team.

7 5. The defense team will protect, retain, and destroy copies of the Protected
8 Material in accordance with their office's file retention policies.

9 6. Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any discovery
10 obligations on the government or the defendant that are different from those imposed by 11 case law and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Local Criminal 12 Rules.

13 7. Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-
14 trial motions, trial, sentencing, or other matter before this Court, shall be filed under seal
15 and shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either
16 party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all 17 respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the 18 sealing of court documents.

19 8. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 20 prosecution.

21 9. Any violation of any term or condition of this Order by the Defendant, his 22 attorneys of record, any member of the defense team, or any attorney for the United
23 States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington, may be held in contempt
24 of court, and/or may be subject to monetary or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by 25 this Court.
